> ABOUT

Motor yacht Oasis 34m with a gross tonnage of 275 GT and a length of 34 meters is being built by the Italian shipyard Benetti. Designed in collaboration with British studio RWD, the yacht is ideal for those who are looking for an opportunity to relax in a luxurious and informal environment, as close as possible to the sea.

As on the older model, on the main deck of the Oasis 34m, instead of the usual salon, there is a multifunctional lounge area with panoramic windows and direct access to the beach club – a huge terrace on the main deck, equipped with a spacious swimming pool. At the anchorage, the sides in the aft part of the terrace recline, increasing the area of the beach area.

Design Bureau Bonetti Kozerski (New York, USA) has implemented elegant and minimalist solutions in the interior, which blends harmoniously with the surrounding landscapes. The rooms are distinguished by high ceilings and extensive glazed surfaces. Salons and cabins are free from unnecessary partitions and details, the spaces are as open as possible and focus on the surrounding sea views.

The captain's cabin is located on the upper deck, next to the helm station, which is integrated into the upper saloon. For maximum privacy of the shipowner and his guests, the helm station and the crew area are connected by service passages inside the yacht.
